

The Dixie Chicks are using their popularity amongst young voter who are impressionable and lacking in the maturity to make their own presidential decision. After reviewing the applicable laws it appears that Sinclair is well within their rights. I hope to see their programming as much as I did Fahrenheit 911.
These young ladies are so out of their realm.

Sincerely

Ed Burns